'Things That Matter Most' Theme For Emphasis Week

The theme "Things That Matter Most," will dominate Special Emphasis Week, March 7-11, at Santa Ana College.

This will mark the fourth year that SAC has devoted particular attention to the subject of the moral and spiritual values of American society.

Students taking an active part in sponsorship of meetings and implementation of the overall week's program are members of the Newman Club, the Don Lions and the Circle K Club.

O'Sullivan Heads Supreme Court

O'Sullivan will head the group of four student and four faculty members for the remainder of the semester.

Preston Marsh, Jim Allitto, Sue Linton and Elizabeth Beall will serve as the student members on the court.

Dean of Students, Thomas Trawick, will head the faculty members.

Chairman O'Sullivan, is an active member of Circle K, men's service club, and is also working on the constitutional changes committee.

Headlining the list of speakers during the Special Emphasis Week will be Dr. Winston Trever. Dr. Trever will speak at 11 o'clock Thursday, March 10, in Phillips Hall.

Two students panels are scheduled for the week, one on Tuesday, March 8, and the second on Wednesday, March 9. The first meeting will be in A-1 and will have Dean William Corser as moderator. The second will have Dr. J. C. Fikes as moderator. On both days the meetings are at noon.

Organization and program planning for the 1960 observance has been the responsibility of a student-faculty committee composed of the following: Maeva Hutter, who was elected student chairman of the committee and Marie Pound, representative and adviser of the Newman Club; Robert Fenster and David N. Hartman, president and adviser of Circle K; Harvey Grimes and David Williams, president and adviser of Don Lions; Judy Sorrell, president Campus Christian Club; Beth Harrison, president, Lambda Delta Sigma; Ernest Crain, faculty member on committee for moral and spiritual values and Agness Todd Miller, representing student personnel administrative staff.

Miss Miller has been a special adviser to the overall committee and responsible for the alignment and focus of the 1960 program. "Previous programs have attracted wide attention from the student body and it is hoped this year's will be even more popular," Miss Miller declared.

The subject matter to be discussed at the panel sessions will be in harmony with the theme, "Things That Matter Most" to Santa Ana College students.

March 11 Set For EC Dance

Eight queens, each representing an Eastern Conference college, will be honored at the annual EC dance, March 11 at the Pasadena Civic Auditorium.

Kay Black represents Santa Ana College as EC queen. She was sponsored by Circle K, men's service organization.

Tickets for the dance, which has been given the name of "Grecian Fantasy" are available from clubs, student council members, and the business office. Price is $3.00 per couple.

Si Zentner and his orchestra will provide the music for the dance from 9 p.m. to 1 p.m. Dress for the occasion is semi-formal.

SAC is in charge of decorations.

Student Committee Plans Constitution Revision

Major changes in student government were being anticipated this week as a Presidential appointed Constitution Committee steps toward revision of the Associated Student Constitution.

The committee, chaired by Freshman representative Larry Wentzel, includes freshmen Nancy Leffler, Mike O'Sullivan, and Sophomore Representatives, Judy Morse, Sonja Smith, and Cliff Hutter.

Among proposed changes is a suggestion, brought up for discussion at last weekend's student government retreat, that the commissioner's offices be elected positions. This would include Commissioner of Special Activities, Social Events, Publicity, and Assemblies and Rallies. The present Constitution calls for these offices to be appointive.

Wentzel's committee has been holding weekly meetings discussing flaws in the present Constitution and proposed changes in the document. Following a complete study of the Constitution, proposed changes will be presented to the Associated Students for approval.

This will be the second major Constitutional change in as many years. This is the first year of operation under the present Constitution which was adopted by students in last year's spring election.

The present Constitution was revised by a committee under the chairmanship of Dick Unwin, A. S. Treasurer last year.

Heading a list of major changes that went into effect this year was the section under which student offices were to be held on a yearly basis. In the past, student leaders served for one semester.

At last weekend's retreat at Moonridge, student leaders went through the present Constitution page by page, determining weaknesses and suggesting changes. It was the general consensus of the group that officers are more effective serving a full year term and that in the future Commissioners should be elected. If they are not elected, it was generally felt, that they should not hold a vote on the council.

Six New Freshman Members Accepted Into Las Doncellas

Las Doncellas, campus honorary women's club, has accepted six second semester freshmen women as new members.

Members of Las Doncellas help in entertaining campus guests, act as guides on occasions, and serve at special dinners.

Membership in Las Doncellas is gained by submitting an application, being recommended by faculty advisers and being approved by the majority of members.

Officers of the club are Sharon Quinn, president; Judy Warnke, vice president; and Nancy McNeil, secretary-treasurer.

Music Festival Offers Competition

Hundreds of high school and junior high band and orchestra members from Orange County will compete at Santa Ana College Friday and Saturday in a regional session of the Southern California Band and Orchestra Association.

Ted Nichols, SAC band director, is chairman of the competition, aided by Ray Walden, of Willard Junior High School, Santa Ana.

Ballew, Busch to Head Cast For 'Green Grow The Lilacs'

Director Robert Blaustone has announced the tentative cast list for the forthcoming College Players production, "Green Grow the Lilacs," which is the Original version of "Oklahoma."

Leading roles of Curly and Laurey have been assigned to Bob Ballew and Margaret Busch. Jeeter, troublemaker of the entire play, will be portrayed by "Buz" Fourtney.

The "Cain't Say No" gal, Ado Annie, will be played by Shari Koppel and the peddler by Ed Rice.

Other parts have been assigned to Larry Keith, Old Man Peck; Louise DiLallo, Marthy; Bill Peters, Cord Elam.

Cowboys will be Dave Ascher, Jim Hoover, Bill May, and Bill Sims. Cowgirls will be Liz Beall and Carol Dunbar.

The play, written by Lynn Riggs, will be presented March 31, April 1 and 2 in Phillips Hall.

Kathy Kennedy Appointed Publicity Commissioner

Miss Kathy Kennedy, Santa Ana College sophomore, was appointed Publicity Commissioner by Associated Students' President Bill Mott, Tuesday, March 1.

Miss Kennedy is currently serving as Associated Women's Students Vice-President and Inter-Club Council representative for Las Meninas. She also served as a Supreme Court member last semester.

Calendar of Events

Working on publicity with Miss Kennedy will be a six member committee composed of one representative from the three women's service clubs plus one representative from the Don Lions, Circle K and the Newman club.

Revised publicity for the Eastern Conference dance will be the first thing on Miss Kennedy's agenda. Since the dance has been changed to a girl ask boy, in addition to boy ask girl, type of affair, new posters will have to be made.

Publicity for the Day of the Don activities will also be under operation in the very near future, reported Miss Kennedy.

'Princess Tok Tok' Ends Three-day Run

More Assemblage

How often has the student plea for more assemblies been heard?

How often has the plea for better assemblies been heard?

Ninety-nine per cent of the people on the Santa Ana campus do not know how many assemblies have been staged this year. Furthermore, they wouldn't know whether they were good or bad.

The truth of the matter is, no one ever goes to the assemblies.

Last week, Dr. Herald Humbert spoke in Phillips Hall. Exactly 49 people were in attendance. This grand total includes administration, faculty, students, AND Dr. Humbert.

Speaking to an audience of 48 people in an auditorium the size of Phillips Hall is only slightly better than talking to yourself.

It was probably very difficult to explain to Dr. Humbert that SAC boasts a student body of approximately 1,000 and yet less than 50 people attend the assemblies.

Better assemblies? Relative to what?

How many of you are qualified to say they could be improved. How do you decide what an audience that does not exist would like?

What we need is not more assemblies but more assemblage.

C.J.B.

Inside Story

For the second time in as many years a new Associated Students Constitution will be presented for student approval at the spring election.

Members of the Student Council Constitution Committee have spent many hours studying flaws in the present document and are attempting to iron out existing problems.

The entire Student Council spent many hours at last weekend's retreat hashing over the Constitution and its needs.

The point that needs to be brought forward now is that not only should the council be aware of the problems in this and the proposed new Constitution but the entire student body as well.

Last year a new Constitution was adopted. It had many new revolutionary ideas, including the full year term for student council officers. But right from the start there has been found numerous unworkable clauses in the document. You see, it was passed even though most of the voters had no idea as to what they were voting on.

The new constitution committee meets weekly. Next week an open meeting will be held whereby students will be urged to attend. Don't pass up the chance to attend, but attend and get on the "inside" of student government.

THE LUMP APPEARS!

Yearbook Drama Takes All Year to Complete

Every minute counts as the 1960 yearbook staff spends exacting hours preparing the 176 page annual.

Recording the year's activities begins in late fall and continues without a recess until April so SAC students may enjoy a picture survey of their lives at the college.

With only a remainder of 70 pages to edit, the "memorie book" takes shape under the pressures of deadlines, copy rewriting, and photography problems which constantly plague a production staff.

Yearbook staff members meet three times per week at the noon hour; have no definite laboratory scheduled, yet spend many hours per week on their own time preparing the copy; and receive only two units of credit.

Hard Tasks

"Many of the staff members aren't acquainted with the strenuous responsibilities at the first of the year, but by the end of the second semester they are fully aware of the hard work involved," commented co-editor Carol Smith.

A complete dummy of the book is the first step of planning. It not only makes photography appointments easier, but also prevents copy mixup.

Secondly, pictures are snapped, developed and printed with the modern facilities of the Santa Ana College darkrooms. Two skilled photographers, John Servis and George Hushman are doing the photography work for the 1960 edition.

Compiling Copy

To tell the story of the picture and identify the characters, copy must be compiled and adequately written by creative staff members.

When all copy and photos are approved by the editors and faculty adviser, Carl Venstrom, they are sent to the Mirro-Graphic Corporation which does final printing of the yearbook. They, in turn, send back page proofs in a 16 page signature for proof-reading.

The Lump

But this year's edition has a very special feature . . . THE LUMP! He prances across the pages adding life and humor to the photography and introduces important headings.

"Another 'first' for the book this year will be the special recognition section," added co-editor Willie Sprague. "It will be devoted to honorary clubs and buildings in the interest of students."

No Color Pix

There will be no color pages in the edition. Sadly enough, the budget does not allow for the expensive photos.

"But clever end pages will be used as the rationalization," said editor Smith.

Financing a yearbook has always been the problem of both high schools and colleges. Most of the money is provided by the student body. Other money is gathered from advertising.

"Each staff member is working diligently to meet our final deadline of April 1 and the yearbook will be ready for distribution on June 1. It will be available to each A.S.B. card holder," Smith concluded.

THINKING MAN

Veteran Student of Three Years Still Active in SAC Government

Student government is traditionally a complex and exhausting undertaking. Many students succumb to its pressures. One, though, seems to go on and on.

Cliff Hutter, veteran Santa Ana College student of 89 units, seems to thrive on student government and the pressures surrounding working in student activities.

Hutter, a sociology major, is presently in the midst of his sixth semester at SAC. During the entire course of the three years he has been active in student affairs, although his present office of Sophomore representative on the Cliff says.

Cliff is a worker. A worker with set ideas that any opposition may have a hard time altering.

Enjoys Sports

A real sports enthusiast, Hutter never misses an athletic event. "My pet peeve on this campus," offers Cliff, "is the terrible support given to the spring sports."

Future plans call for Hutter to leave SAC following this semester and continue study at Long Beach State. And there's no doubt about it, he'll be on the "inside" of student activities within a matter of days upon entrance.

CLIFF HUTTER

Campus Handyman

Among campus activities that he is involved in during this semester is 1) president of Newman Club; 2) member of Don Lions (former office) 3) chairman of Day of the Don activities; and 4) generally everybody's handyman.

Cliff also is an idea man as shown by his membership on the committee that is presently revising the Associated Students Constitution. Hutter has been instrumental in many of the revision ideas.

Philosophy

His philosophy on student government . . . ? Well, he believes that many people get too upset over little things. "They let minor things disturb their whole life,"

Beaver Contest Begins March 7

Beaver registration week begins March 7 in the Student Union breezeway.

Beaver is the new name for the beard growing contest to be held during festive day of the Don March 28. Regulation for sign-up is that the boy must be clean-shaven at the time.

The action-packed day will also be highlighted by a Queen Dona and King Don. Sophomores and freshmen will have a chance to show their strength in a special tug-o-war planned for the day.

Candidate names for Don and Dona may be filed in Dean Thomas Trawick's office by March 25. Women's clubs nominate men and vice versa.

ASB Constitution Discussed By SAC Leaders at Retreat

Santa Ana College student government leaders discussed proposed changes in the ASB constitution and coming college events at last weekend's mountain retreat at Moon Ridge.

ASB president Bill Mott led the discussion on coming events. Among the events discussed were Special Emphasis Week, the EC dance, high school visitation day and the Gypsy Doodle, which come up this month.

Larry Wentzel, chairman of the constitutional changes committee, led the discussion on the ASB constitution. Straw votes were taken on the proposed changes and revisions.

Arrangements for the retreat were made by Commissioner of Special Student Activities Jarrell Mauck. Advisers on the retreat were Marie Pound and William Corser.

SAC student leaders attending were Ardith Munro, Janice Bate, Kathy Kennedy, Carolyn Bridge, Susan Larsen, Linda Bright, Karen Windh, Nancy Leffler and Kay Black.

Council Comments

Alan Leonard reported that $2,807.47 had been made on football and $348.85 on basketball. These amounts are less than budgeted.

Special activities commissioner Jarrell Mauck reported that some council members and clubs have failed to pick up the tickets for the EC dance. Mauck also reported on the council retreat.

Ardith Munro again reminded the council to turn in their job analysis reports for the book she is compiling.

Larry Keith commented on the poor attendance at the last assembly. The next assembly will be during Special Emphasis Week.

Several special reports followed including reports on Day of the Don, the constitutional changes committee, and the pep squad investigation committee.

ASB president Bill Mott then announced the appointments for supreme court and publicity commissioner. Preston Marsh, Jim Allito, Elizabeth Beall, and Sue Linton were appointed to the court. Kathy Kennedy was appointed publicity commissioner.

Under a motion made last week by Mike O'Sullivan and postponed until this meeting Congressman James B. Utt was made an honorary member of SAC.

Stuart Cracks JC Record at Citrus

Santa Ana College's track team took advantage of top notch performances from its "Big Three S's" as the Dons were making an impressive showing in the Citrus JC Relays for Eastern Conference teams last Friday.

Former Marine Larry Stuart stole the show by erasing the National Junior College javelin record by over 14 feet in his first outing as a Don.

New Mark

Stuart, who was the Penn Relays champ while in the service last year, hurled the javelin 245 ft. 6 and one half inches, shattering the old mark of 231 ft. one fourth in. by Richard Tomlinson of San Diego.

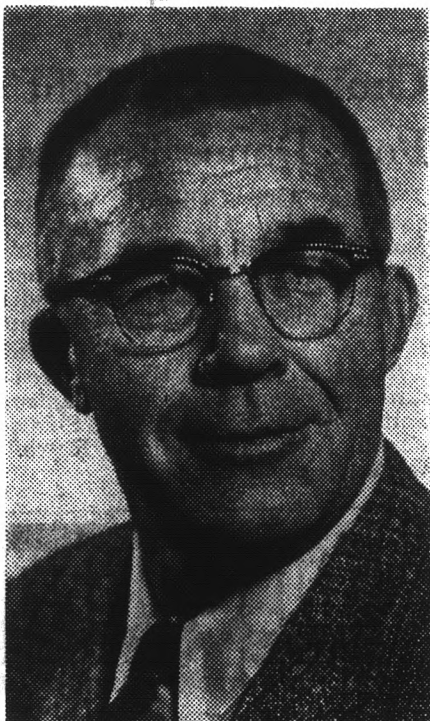

The Dons' Doug Stoner missed the National JC discus record by less than a yard as he turned in his best performance. His heave of 165 ft. 8 three fourths ins. fell short of the record 168 ft. 6 one fourth ins.

The third member of the "Three S's" Dale Story, anchored the winning medley relay team when he ran the mile in 4:15 in his debut as a college miler. Last year Story established a new High School mile standard of 4:11 while attending Orange High.

Serve Warning

Bill Hudson of Santa Ana won the two mile event in 10:05 as the Dons were serving a warning of their 1960 track strength to the other seven Eastern Conference schools.

Next meet for coach John Ward's thinclads is March 10 against San Bernardino and Chaffey at San Bernardino.

SAC Golf Team Opens EC Play

Coach Arlin Pirtle's 1960 golf squad, favorites to cop the Eastern Conference title and make a bid for the state title, open conference play Monday against arch rivals Orange Coast and San Bernardino.

Monday's opener will be held at the new Mesa Verde Country Club, in Costa Mesa. The course serves as "home" for both the Dons and Pirates.

Pirtle's probable starting order will have Dave Adams, Bill Hammond, Roger Benson, Bob Metzger, Dave Dietel, and Ray Butler or Bruce Beatty. Butler, former all state basketball player, is a new squad member while Adams and Hammond are returning lettermen.

The Dons finished second to Orange Coast in the Eastern Conference last season but finished third to the Pirates' fourth in the State Tournament.

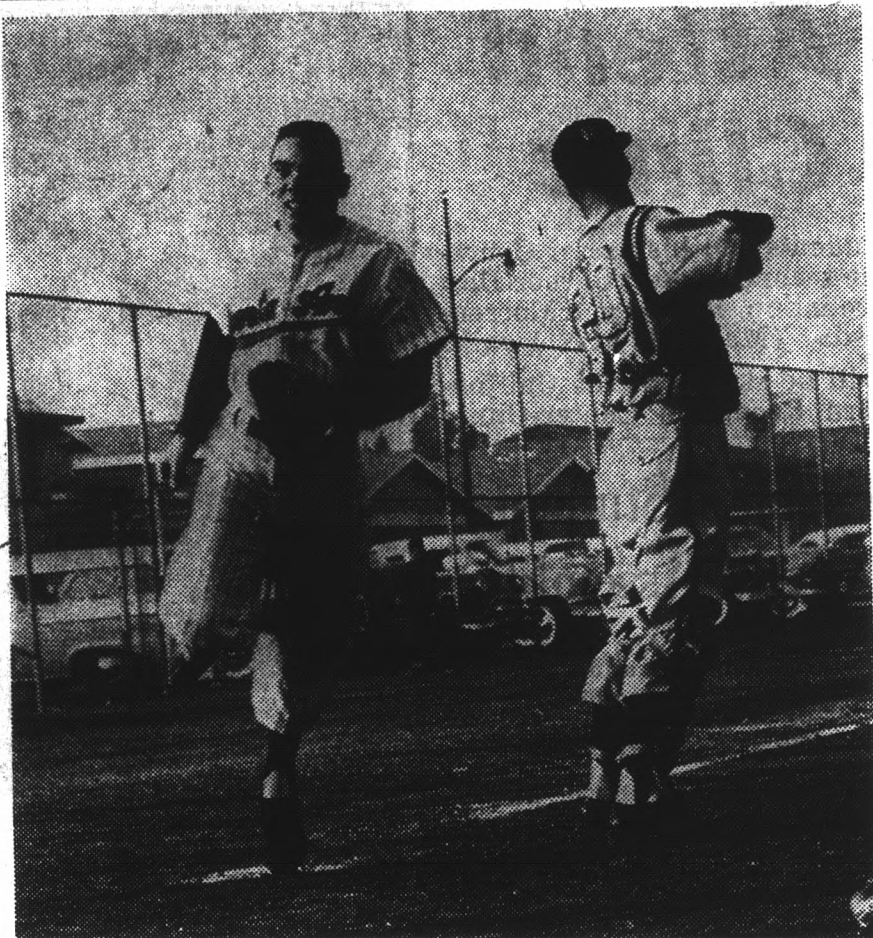

Coach Pirtle is confident that this year's club can win the title but expressed wishes that "the students would get out and gallop for our boys." Orange Coast traditionally has gallery backing.

Don Tennis Team Launches Season

Santa Ana College launches its 1960 Eastern tennis season today against Citrus on the Don courts.

Coach Russ Chesley's Dons will play six singles matches and three doubles starting at 2:00. Competing for Santa Ana will be Jim Alitto, Mike Brown, Fred Wright, Jeff Parker, Junior Stein, and Alan Leonard. Richard Allen is the alternate or seventh man.

Chesley will continue to carry 13 players on his squad with the top boys for that week participating in the EC matches.

EC TEAMS — BEWARE

Dons in Upset Over Cerritos

By Jerry Wilcox
El Don Sports Editor

NORWALK, Eastern Conference baseball teams are eyeing Santa Ana College with a little more respect today after the Dons edged powerful Cerritos JC, 4-2, yesterday thanks to a three run ninth inning rally and some fine clutch pitching by Dick Kreager.

In trimming the previously unbeaten Falcons, tabbed by some experts as the best junior college team in Southern California, coach Cliff Rothrock's Dons stamped themselves as definite contenders in this year's race to the conference pennant.

Host Spartans

The Dons go back to work again today, hosting the USC Spartans at 2:30 in a hurriedly rescheduled game after Tuesday's washout.

Yesterday's ball game was a thriller all the way with the Falcons, winners of eight in a row and looking for number nine, stranding three base runners in the ninth inning.

Trailing, 2-1, going into the final frame, Santa Ana scored three unearned runs on two hits, a walk, and three Cerritos errors.

Bernie Young lived on shortstop Louis Sanchez' bobble, stole second and went to third when pitcher Dick White's attempted pickoff rolled into center field. Then the former Santa Ana high flash tallied the tying run on catcher Ed Moriarity's squeeze bunt. Moriarity reached first when White threw to the plate.

Third Hit

After Don Crabtree beat out a bunt, Harry Fulsom loaded the bases with a solid single to right, the third Don hit of the day and the last. Moriarity and Crabtree both scored when White fielded Kreager's bunt and fired it past the catcher.

In the Falcon half of the ninth, Kreager, who allowed only five hits, walked seven and struck out three, showed signs of tiring. After he issued three free passes, Rothrock brought in reliever Jerry Thompson who got the final two batters on a pop fly and a ground out.

Cerritos picked up one of its two unearned runs in the third as football star Dallas Moon got on on shortstop Terry Tewell's miscue and came around on Dan Bales' single and a subsequent two base error by left fielder Gary Sawyer.

Tie Game

Fulsom tied it up for the Dons in the fifth when he was hit by a pitch from starter Barney Sims, went to second on Kreager's sacrifice, and romped home when Brian Tewell lined a single to center.

The Falcons took the lead again in the sixth. Third baseman Jim Wolfsberger walked, stole two bases, and scored on Tewell's second error.

It remained 2-1 until the Don uprising in the ninth.

Additions Bolster Don Swim Squad

The addition of three new swimmers bolstered the hopes of Coach Myrel Moore and his Santa Ana College mermen as the Dons are having daily workouts in preparation for their first swim season.

New members of the Don squad, which opens the season March 15 against Orange Coast and Mt. San Antonio at Orange Coast, are Allan MacAuley from Santa Ana, Arnie Douglas from Garden Grove and footballer Jay Stromgren from Davis High.

Livingston Top Casaba Scorer; Edges Brettman

All Eastern Conference guards Don Livingston and forward Brettman, a second team selection on the All EC squad, were leading Santa Ana College scorers this year, according to official basketball statistics released today.

Livingston scored 201 points in conference play for a 14.2 average and seventh place among all Don scorers in loop play for season. Brettman's 194 total good enough for a 13.9 average and ninth place.

Guard Don McConnell hit an amazing 88 per cent of his throws in EC action to wipe out existing records in that department. His overall free throw average was 82 per cent.

In season scoring Brettman edged out Livingston 372-367, put the Don forward in a tie for sixth place in the total points per game department. Livingston in a tie for ninth.

Brettman's 372 total points with his 240 last year puts him fifth place among all time scorers for two seasons.

Offensive and defensive statistics showed the Dons scored 983 points in conference play for a 70.1 average and allowing for a 64.5 mark. Last year they tallied 1181 for 84.4 per game and gave up 907 for a 64.8 average.

Other conference scoring statistics of Don players were: McConnell, 142; Garnet Lill, 110; Milt Horton, 100; Livingston 96; Phil Livesey, 46 (scoring games); Buddy Ross, 35; Dutro, 33 (seven games); Dannenbring, 15; Jan Davis, Ed Moriarity, 4; and Ron Leonard.

The Don basketball banquet will be held April 5 with UCLA's John Wooden as the guest speaker.

Awards to be made are captain, most improved player, most inspirational player, valuable player, and best throw shooter.
